

Name _____ Due Date _____

Directions: These Reading/Writing Tasks are assigned every Monday and are due Friday. After you finish your 20 minutes of reading each evening, complete one task. Give evidence for your answer from your book. Answer in complete sentences. You may not do any task more than once each week.

Grading Rubric: Each day is worth 25 points for a total of 100 by the end of the week.

Book title: 2 pts. Page numbers: 2 pts. Task number: 1 pt. Task completed fully: 10 pts. Task referenced the homework reading: 5 pts. Task written in complete sentences or illustrated in detail: 5 pts. Partial credit for each section may be given at the teacher's discretion. Points will be lost for repeating the same task in the same week or never changing tasks week-to-week.

Tasks:

1	Identify the WHO and WHAT. Who are the characters? What are they doing in your book?
2	Identify the setting. Explain where and when the story takes place.
3	Identify a word you don't know from your reading. Write the word. Explain what you think it means and why you think you're right.
4	What is the main character's problem? Predict how do you think he/she will solve the problem?
5	Illustrate a descriptive part of your book. Write the page number of the scene you are illustrating.
6	Describe a connection you made in your reading. This connection could be to another book, a movie, a TV show, a news report, a story someone told you or something that really happened to you.
7	Make an inference about a character's emotions. What are they feeling? How do you know?
8	If you could talk to one of the characters, what would you say to him/her? Why?
9	What advice would you give someone who had a problem in this story?
10	What was one thing you didn't like about the story? Why?
11	Describe a problem a character had in the story. How was it solved?
12	How could the story have ended differently?
